Summer Reading 2023

“All Together Now!”

Step right up, reading materials galore! Make your selections from the largest assortment of materials ever gathered together under one tent. E-books, audiobooks, regular books, graphic novels, newspapers, magazines! For every hour read (yes, audiobooks count!) you'll earn one ticket to use at our end of Summer Reading carnival finale. Use your tickets for food, games, and prizes! The more you read, the more chances to win and have fun.

But the fun doesn't stop there! This summer we are reading “All Together Now” and putting our collective reading strength to the test. For every 100 hours we all read together, we'll flex our reading muscles one sledgehammer's blow closer to ringing the Big Top bell. That's right, ladies and gentlemen, for every 500 hours collectively read, we all win and all Summer Reading participants will earn an extra ticket to use at our Carnival Finale.

But hurry, hurry, hurry — the Summer Reading circus will only be in town for a limited time! Gather your minutes read while you can, June 1—July 31. Turn in your weekly reading log online or at the Library to enter a drawing for more tickets!

2023 Circus Schedule

Throughout June and July, the Library will be hosting special Summer Reading programs for participants of all ages. An additional ticket for the Carnival Finale can be earned by attending a program at the Library.
